2010 Call for Scholarship Applications

The Sugar Research and Development Corporation (SRDC) invites applications for three Postgraduate Scholarships to foster training in technical and social disciplines relevant to SRDC's research priorities.

Scholarship Project Proposals may be for PhD, Masters, Graduate Diploma or Graduate Certificate level courses. Applications from candidates holding other bursaries will be considered.

Funding covers costs for up to three years for PhD students in the following way:

$26,000 stipend per year

$6,000 towards operating costs or fees per year

$1,000 for thesis publication costs payable upon completion of thesis

For course work scholarships SRDC will provide fee support in lieu of operating funds.

Applicants are urged to download the SRDC scholarship application kit from the SRDC website, which contains advice on how to address the selection criteria and prepare a high quality proposal.

To be eligible, applications must complete the SRDC application and email it as an attachment to SRDC at apply@srdc.gov.au by 4 September 2009

In October and November 2009, shortlisted applicants will be required to take aptitude and psychometric tests, make a short presentation and be interviewed by a selection panel.

In December 2009, SRDC will announce students who have been awarded a scholarship for courses commencing in 2010.

The scholarship application kit and application form is available from the SRDC website www.srdc.gov.au
