

FEDERATION FELLOWSHIP FIELDWORK SCHOLARSHIPS

'ISLAM AND LAW IN SOUTHEAST ASIA' FIELDWORK SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE FOR MASTERS OR PHD CANDIDATES

SCHOLARSHIPS

Some limited funding is available to assist research into Islam-related issues relevant to Southeast Asia. 'Islam and Law in Southeast Asia' Fieldwork Scholarships of up to A$2,000 are available for Masters or PhD candidates enrolled at the University of Melbourne. The scholarships must be used to support fieldwork in Southeast Asia on Islam-related topics that match the themes of Professor Tim Lindsey's ARC Federation Fellowship.

The themes of the Federation Fellowship can be found at <http://www.lindseyfederation.law.unimelb.edu.au>

Please note that total funding for each scholarship WILL NOT exceed A$2,000. Successful applicants must be able to complete the fieldwork between 1 December, 2009 and 31 December, 2010.

APPLICANTS

Applicants must be:

- a) Masters candidates enrolled at the University of Melbourne in 2009; OR
- b) PhD candidates enrolled at the University of Melbourne in 2009, who intend to conduct research in Southeast Asia on a topic related to Islam, which matches the themes of Professor Tim Lindsey's ARC Federation Fellowship.

Successful applicants will possess:

- Strong analytical and communication skills
- Enthusiasm for research
- Demonstrated exceptional scholarly capacity
- Commitment to the study of Islam and Southeast Asia
- Capacity to carry out research in this field
- Original research proposal
- Capacity to speak (or study) a Southeast Asian language relevant to the proposed research (desirable only)

It is a strict condition of the grant that results of fieldwork must appear in a Masters or PhD thesis, a book chapter or refereed journal article within three years of the date of application. Applicants will be asked to sign an agreement to meet this condition.

APPLICATIONS

All applicants must complete the Federation Fellowship Fieldwork Scholarship application form below. The application MUST NOT exceed 3 pages in total.

Applications must be submitted by 5:00pm on FRIDAY 30 OCTOBER, 2009.
