

Sport and Community PhD Scholarship

Essendon Football Club (EFC) and University of Ballarat (UB) are offering a tax-free PhD Scholarship of at least $30,000 per annum for 3 years. The research project will focus on exploring the link between sport and community development under the supervision of Professor Warren Payne. The successful candidate will be located at both UB and within EFC's Community Department at various stages of the scholarship.

Closing date 5pm Monday 22 March 2010.
